BODIES TO COME HOME

The Soldier Dead To Be Exhumed.

GOVERNMENT WILL ACT

Remains of Men Who Died in the Orient and Here to be Taken Back.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Colonel Wm. S. Patten, of the Quartermaster's Department, on duty at the War Department, has completed arrangements for the free transportation to the United States of the remains of soldiers and sailors and civilians who lost their lives and were buried in the island possessions of the United States and in China. According to the present plans of the Department a burial corps will take passage on the transport Hancock, scheduled to leave San Francisco on October 1st for the Philippines.

At the request of the Secretary of the Navy the same burial corps will undertake to perform similar service with respect to officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps buried in China and the islands of the Pacific. The corps will be in charge of D. H. Rhodes, Inspector of National Cemeteries, who was sent to the Philippines in November, 1899, on a similar errand.

When the transport stops at Honolulu to coal, the bodies buried there will be taken up and made part of her cargo. Similar action will be taken at the island of Guam and in the Philippines.

Colonel Patten says that the prevailing conditions in China will scarcely render practicable any disinterment in that country earlier than next spring. All the remains recovered are to be given honorable burial in the United States at places selected by the next of kin. In all cases where not otherwise ordered the interment will be made in the national cemetery, with preference for the cemetery at the Presidio, San Francisco, and Arlington, near Washington.

The approximate number of remains to be exhumed is 1,331, distributed in the following places:

Honolulu, thirty-six enlisted men of the army and one marine.
Guam, eight men of the navy.
China, two officers of the army, fifty-eight enlisted men of the army and thirty-seven men of the navy.
Philippines, seventeen officers of the army, 1,150 enlisted men of the army and twenty-eight men of the navy.

JOHN SHERMAN
A BROKEN MAN

The Old Statesman's Mind is Gradually Flickering Out.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—A special to the Sun from Mansfield, O., says: This city can no longer claim John Sherman as a citizen. At 5:45 o'clock last night Sherman, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. J. L. McCallum, her two children and Dr. E. Loughridge, left here for Washington, not to return. Sherman is in feeble health. The splendid Sherman property on Park avenue, West, is to be divided into lots and sold. The old Sherman home will also pass into the hands of strangers.

Mansfield was long the home of the venerable statesman, who, as an humble law student, entered on his political career in this city. When Mansfield was yet a village Sherman purchased eighty acres of land on the western outskirts for $100 an acre. Eighteen or twenty years ago he gave a number of acres to the city for a park. The balance of the land, which is now in the best residence part of Mansfield, is occupied by the Sherman home. Orchards and groves slope away from the house on all four sides.

The once great mind of the statesman is failing fast. Lifelong friends and even near relatives who called at the Sherman residence after Mrs. Sherman's death were not recognized. The ex-Senator was so feeble that it was not deemed advisable to inform him of the death of his sister, Mrs. Sherman Reese, which occurred recently at Lancaster, O. There was a movement on foot to give Sherman a farewell reception, but it was abandoned on account of his feeble condition.

Sherman's total wealth is conservatively estimated at not less than $4,000,000.

THE TURKS RELENT.

They Permit the Reconstruction of Euphrates College.

BOSTON, Sept. 19.—The board of trustees in Boston of Euphrates College, situated at Harport, Eastern Turkey, has received a cablegram from President C. Frank Gates, at Harport, that permission to reconstruct the buildings destroyed by the Turks in the autumn of 1895 has just been given by the local government.

Five months ago it was announced from Constantinople that the Government, after a number of years' delay, had granted permission to rebuild. The documents were forwarded from Constantinople to Harport, a distance of about 700 miles, and there put into the hands of the local provincial Governor. A document, purporting to be a copy of the imperial permission, was handed President Gates, giving permission to build a "few teachers' rooms, which was interpreted by the local officials as meaning no more than five. The charge d'affaires at Constantinople took the matter up vigorously and after four months of earnest diplomatic effort, the original permission has reached the college authorities. It is said to be a very gratifying document, apparently granting all that was asked with one unimportant exception.

The college schools in all their departments, including the primary, have enrolled this year more than 1,100 pupils. A little less than 100 of these are in the college department proper.

Had Finances of Brazil.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—A dispatch to the Herald from Rio de Janeiro says:

The official Journal publishes today facts concerning the origin of the bank crisis. It says that one year ago the directors of the Bank of the Republic informed the Government that the situation was very critical. The Government added the bank by making deposits amounting to $5,000,000.

The Herald's correspondent in Manaoas reports that the Bolivian forces have occupied Puerto Alonso, the stronghold of the revolution in Acre.

The French Worsted.

PARIS, Sept. 18.—The Ministry of War announces that news has been received of fighting between the troops forming a French Saharan outpost, near Timimoun, and the Barbary tribesmen. The French troops, under Colonel Conette, fought two engagements, and finally returned to Timimoun without being molested. The dispatch is vague, but says clearly that the French lost twenty-six men killed and wounded, including two officers killed. Reinforcements are on their way to Timimoun.

ROBBED BY RUSSIANS.

The Unhappy Experience of the Steamship Samoa.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 18.—Officers of the steamship St. Paul, arriving tonight from Nome, report that the steamship Samoa returned to Nome September 7th, after having delivered on the Siberian coast the thirty-two Russians who were implicated in the plot to seize the vessel on her previous trip and depose George D. Roberts, who headed the original expedition. The military authorities at Nome, convinced of the guilt of the Russians, ordered their deportation and the Samoa was given a commission to land them on Russian soil.

The Russians, however, took revenge by stealing from the vessel everything portable that could be concealed about their persons and in their luggage, including a satchel from the stateroom of the captain of the Samoa, containing $200. The robbery was not discovered until the Russians had all been put ashore and the Samoa had again started to sea. The hopelessness of pursuit was evident and the disgusted Samoa people simply added the new loss to the previous total of their afflictions at the hands of their Russian associates.

PLAN A CEMETERY AT DIAMOND HEAD

Governor Dole and Superintendent McCandless yesterday went out beyond Diamond Head with Messrs. Gilman, Ballentine and Thurston of the directorate of the Rapid Transit Company for the purpose of looking up a site for a new cemetery. If the present plans of the Government are carried out, a public cemetery will be located there and an electric road will be built to connect it with the city.

For some time it has been planned to build some public cemetery outside of the present limits of the city, and various plans for such a place have been suggested, while several corporations have also considered the feasibility of constructing a cemetery with private capital. The Board of Health last spring passed a rule whereby it was decided to forbid the burying of bodies within the limits of the city, except on special permit. This rule was to go into effect on the first of October. But until yesterday no active steps had been taken by the Government for the construction of such a place.

The party which went out yesterday looked over all of the available land on the eastern slope of Diamond Head and one tract of about 100 acres was found that would be an excellent location for the new cemetery. It lies midway of the slope and is covered with a growth of algeroba trees. It is accessible either by the road through Kaimuki or around the sea side of Diamond Head.

The Rapid Transit officials were requested to accompany the Government officers so that they might consider the plan of extending their lines to the proposed site for the cemetery, for the place is at such a distance from the city that some means of reaching it besides by road are necessary.

While no definite steps were taken toward locating the cemetery at the spot visited, the Rapid Transit people will be asked to submit suggestions for the proposed road and if they prove satisfactory to the Government it is likely that it will be decided to locate the cemetery there. The Rapid Transit directorate will hold a meeting within the next few days at which the matter will be decided upon and then it will be decided at the next meeting following of the Governor's council.

AUTHOR OF "JANICE MEREDITH."

He Weds a Popular Young Woman of Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Paul Leicester Ford, the author, and Miss Grace Kidder, daughter of Edward H. Kidder, were married at noon today at the residence of the bride's parents in Brooklyn. The Rev. Frederick Burgess, rector of Grace Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony. Only intimate friends and relatives of the bride and bridegroom were present on account of the recent death of the bride's aunt. At the hour of 12 a male choir, stationed just off the drawing-room, sang "Oh, Perfect Love." During the singing the bride, supported by her father and attended by a maid of honor, Katharine Dreier, entered the room and proceeded to a floral altar which had been erected there, and whose colors, green and white, were those of the decorations of the drawing-room. Mr. Ford was accompanied to the altar by his brother, Worthington Chauncey Ford. At the conclusion of the ceremony the choir sang "Now Thank We All Our God." And then the wedding breakfast was served. Ford is a son of the late Gordon L. Ford. His novels that have attracted the most attention are: "The Hon. Peter Stirling," "Janice Meredith" and "The Story of an Untold Love." Mrs. Ford is an only daughter, and since her formal entrance into society, a few seasons ago, has been one of the popular young women of Brooklyn.

An American Claim.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 18.—Lloyd Griscom, United States charge d'affaires, has made verbal representations to the Porte, demanding the release of an Armenian, who, it is claimed, is a naturalized American citizen and who was arrested upon the charge of belonging to the Armenian revolutionary committee. An investigation has been ordered and if the prisoner is found to be an American citizen he will be released.

ANOTHER SNAG FOR REGISTRATION BOARD

The Board of Registration is up against another snag placed in its path by A. V. Gear yesterday morning. The latter called into question the Board's interpretation of section 50, paragraph 2, of the Organic Act, which reads as follows:

That in order to be qualified to vote for Representatives a person shall have resided in the Territory not less than one year preceding and in the Representative district in which he offers to register not less than three months immediately preceding the time at which he offers to register.

Mr. Gear's contention was that the section read very plainly, and to him clearly, that the clause "not less than three months immediately preceding the time at which he offers to register," means that a man who has resided here for three months "immediately preceding" the time at which he registers is available for registration, providing that he has fulfilled the provisions of the first clause, that he has "resided in the Territory not less than one year preceding."

By this he means that in the case of Mr. Hall, who had lived in Honolulu from 1895 to 1898 and had been absent until May of this year, was eligible to register. Mr. Gear's interpretation of the clause is that Mr. Hall has lived not only one year "preceding," but, in fact, two years "preceding" the time he went to register. By having resided here since May, 1898, or more than the specified "three months immediately preceding the time he offers to register," he has entirely fulfilled the provisions of the section, and is within the meaning of the interpretation intended to be placed on the section by the framers of the Act.

The word "immediately," as Mr. Gear contends, was placed in the section, and especially in the second clause, for a definite purpose. It does not read "next preceding," as legal phraseology would have it, and which is the usual form in sections of this character, but very emphatically makes it "immediately."

He further contended before the Board that the word "immediately" had no reference to the first clause, "have resided in the Territory not less than one year," etc. Had it been the intention of Congress to cause citizens to "reside in the Territory not less than one year immediately preceding, etc.," the word would have been so inserted. He did not believe they had any such intention.

The Registration Board decided against Mr. Gear and refused to register Mr. Hall. The matter was taken before the Republican Committee yesterday and it was later decided to make a test case in the Courts. A writ of mandamus will be applied for today by the Republican Committee against the Board of Registration, in order to get a legal decision as to the interpretation of the knotty section.

DEMOCRATS TALK FUSION

taken up as the order of business for the evening. Kinney spoke at length upon the subject. "I think if we fire Pua off the ticket we don't know where it will stop. We have made a good start. John Wise said to me today, 'Don't pay any attention to Pua or his letter of declination.' From what Wise told me, the way the case was at present, Pua would have to sign something with the Independents or be kicked out."

"Wise assented to this action. Wise is in very close touch with Pua. Now as regards Testa, Nawal and Pua, all three were a little reluctant to going on the Democratic ticket. Damon has accepted our nomination, and has sent a letter to that effect."

"It is a very delicate situation just now as to what our relations will be with the Independents," said Mr. Kinney in a cautious voice. "I think it would be very unwise at this juncture for us to kick Pua off the ticket. We must gradually and by persuasion get the Independents to endorse all our ticket."

The question of headquarters was next brought up. They wanted to get rooms in a central portion of the city where the "braves" could drop in at any time and get a campaign cigar and leave suggestions, etc. A clerk will be supplied there to care for the campaign documents, etc.

Then came an interesting bit of political gossip. The inside story of how Pua came on the ticket and how "Tommy" Lucas did not get a place, was told. There was a rapid-fire discussion of the reasons for the action taken on the two men, and also of the placing of C. W. Booth on the ticket.

Colburn, who was to have been the nominator of "Tommy" Lucas, waxed wroth and told a tale of grievance. He alluded to the fact that he had not been was concerned, I will say this. He came to me before the convention—the day of the convention—and said to me, 'I think it is a shame that I should be whipped into going on that ticket.' Those are the very words he used to me. His brother told me to keep 'Tommy' off the ticket. I had a talk with Lucas just before the convention was called, in the Orpheum Cafe, and he told me then he did not want to go on the ticket. I went to the meeting and I took the whole slate, and took the names all down. I told the committee about 'Tommy's' refusal then. That was why I objected to Lucas in the convention," concluded the Colonel.

Colburn asked why he had not been told of this arrangement before hand. It was because he had not been taken into the confidence of the committee and given notice of the removal of Lucas' name that he made the fight on Booth.

The chairman stated that in reading over the lists with Mr. Kinney and Mr. McClanahan, he had said, "Both to be a representative from the Fourth District." Kinney called out "Booth-Senate." "I corrected him," said the Colonel. "Then McClanahan took the name down wrong," continued the Colonel, finishing his explanation. "Afterwards the secretary prepared slips on the typewriter and in some manner got the names mixed and put Booth down as a Representative."

"The secretary got the slate mixed," said a member.

Colonel McCarthy stated further that in the presence of himself and Mr. Norrie, Lucas had reiterated the statement made previous to the convention that he had not wished to be placed on the Democratic ticket.
